

LOCATING & RETAINING TALENT IN SHORT SUPPLY

How Lorien helps a client locate & retain skill scarce talent.

BACKGROUND

Recruiting for tech expertise can be tricky, especially for skill scarce requirements. A multinational pharmaceutical company required assistance with sourcing niche SAP talent to support critical business programmes on a global scale, and needed a recruitment partner with specialist knowledge in tech to source candidates timely and cost-effectively.

OUR SOLUTION

As specialists in tech, transformation and digital, Loren has been supporting this client since 2001 with its tech recruitment requirements – acting as the top-performing IT & SAP supplier. From resource planning, sourcing, screening and vetting through to offer management, Lorien provides an end-to-end recruitment process, allowing the client to focus on other key business activities.
